

Inn at the quay introduces new south beach-inspired design!

New Westminster, BC (APRIL 1, 2009) – Inn at the Quay proudly unveils its fresh new South Beach-inspired design in New Westminster, B.C. From the guest rooms to the hotel lobby, New Westminster's most intimate luxe hotel (formally Inn at Westminster Quay) has been transformed from beige and burgundy to funky fuchsia and rich indigo, offering a brand new upscale experience to all its guests.

"We are thrilled to unveil our new look," said Kathy MacKerricher, general manager. "From the moment the guests arrive they will experience the new South Beach soul that fills our living room in the form of cheeky chairs and sofas, mood lighting and hints of inviting aromatherapy."

Designed by the award-winning Hager and Associates Inc., Inn at the Quay will surprise guests with many new luxuries such as soft white linens, plush duvets, fluffy white bathrobes and complimentary Cutler bath products in the new spa-inspired bathrooms. Guest rooms now feature an elegant chaise lounge or armless slipper chair, chic modern art headboards and Starbucks coffee. Weekly Wine Flight Nights and Champagne Saturdays in the living room along with alfresco boardwalk dining at the Boathouse Restaurant are just a few more of the luxuries that will entice guests to come back again and again.

Conveniently located only 30 minutes from downtown Vancouver and just steps away from the waterfront, boardwalk and quaint shops of beautiful New Westminster, Inn at the Quay is the perfect peaceful getaway close to the city. Guests can also experience great entertainment with a free 15 minute shuttle to either the Starlight Casino or Boulevard Casino. With beautiful water views of the Fraser River from each of the stylishly renovated suites, guests are sure to experience the ultimate in relaxation and indulgence with each visit.

As a professional meeting destination, Inn at the Quay offers 4,000-sq-ft of space with a beautiful wrap-around balcony, providing natural light and a breath of fresh air just above the Fraser River. The flexible meeting space accommodates groups of 10-200 guests and can be easily configured for business, banquets or elegant waterfront weddings. Wireless Internet access and presentation kits are offered complimentary in each of the meeting rooms. The Boathouse Restaurant adds West Coast flavour to on-site catering with seafood specialties with the finest ingredients from Pacific Northwest farmers and fisherman.

To check out the latest packages and book a visit to the newly renovated Inn at the Quay please visit www.innatthequay.com or call 1-800-663-2001

To obtain images please visit <http://www.cleanpix.com/cleanpix/portal/WR2d:Ay1:PZS>

About Inn at the Quay

Inn at the Quay is the first and only intimate luxe hotel located on the Fraser River boardwalk in New Westminster, B.C. Managed by Atlific Hotels, Inn at the Quay is an easy 30-minute ride on the SkyTrain to downtown Vancouver but miles away from city rush. The hotel's all new look glamorously intertwines South Beach style and divine comfort throughout its living room lobby, 126 guestrooms, fitness room and 4000 sq-ft. of meeting space. Weekly wine flight nights and riverfront balconies in guestrooms are two of the Inn's many luxurious extras. In the Boathouse restaurant, chefs serve fresh West Coast cuisine paired with fine wines from B.C. and around the world.

#

For more information please contact:
Naomi Strasser or Sherri-Lyn Brown
Aerial Communications Group
416.787.6577

naomi@aerialpr.com

sherri@aerialpr.com